

Donations Requested for a Silent Auction

Do you have an item of professional quality artwork or other item of interest you would donate for the NMAEA silent auction? Donations for the silent auction should be brought to the Fall NMAEA Conference by 9:00 a.m. on Friday, November 2nd. Items should have the donors name and where applicable the title and medium.

Please contact NAEA Retired Director Woody Duncan at woodyduncan@comcast.net by October 15th if you are interested in participating. Woody can also pick up donations for the auction. You can reach Woody by phone at his home at 505-344-3613. Proceeds from this auction will assist New Mexico Art Teachers attend the national conference (NAEA) in Forth Worth, Texas in March of 2013.

The auction will take place at this year's NMAEA Annual Fall Conference in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

“Celebrate! NM Art Ed Past, Present, Future” The Lodge at Santa Fe, November 2-3, 2012

NMAEA is the only statewide, content specific, professional development, annual conference for art educators, museum art educators, teaching artists and pre-service art educators in New Mexico.

NMAEA is a 501c3 non-profit organization contributions are tax deductible

